PRESIDENT'S LETTER

November 1, 2018

Members & Friends;

The 2018 Ham Dinner is behind us. It was a total success. Thank you to everyone who helped. And that was everyone! It was great to see all the members working together. It truly does take a team to carry out the event. Congratulate yourselves on a "job well done". And Thank You again.

If you have neglected to complete the Time and Talent form please do so. We often say we will be happy to help with such and such. Then no one calls to follow up. Completing the form will help all of us know what you may be willing to do and we can call with details when we need help. No one likes to be turned down and this will ensure that we ask the right people for the right jobs.

Thank you for the continued support of your council. We are all here to serve you. Please do not hesitate to bring any thoughts and ideas to any council member.

Happy Thanksgiving,
Respectfully,
Judy Newman

Zion Lutheran Church Council Minutes 14 October 2018

Present: Judy Newman, Dewayne Boyles, Chris Filline,
Scott Hunsicker, Pastor Greg Knippa, Chuck Hart, Wayne
Benke, Jacob Schuetz

Absent: Jackie Moss

I. Opening Prayer

- a. Call to order at 11:15 AM
- b. Dewayne Boyles prayed the opening prayer

II. Meeting Minutes

- a. Copies of the minutes from the Sept. 16th meeting were included in the meeting packets. Chris Filline motion to accept the minutes as provided; second by Richard Crain. The motion carried.

III. Treasurer's Report

- a. Copies of Jackie's report were included in the meeting packets for review. Motion by Chris Filline to accept the report as provided; second by Richard Crain. The motion carried.

IV. Pastor Greg's Report

- a. Copies of Pastor Greg's written report were included in the meeting packets. Pastor Greg commented on the following items:
  - i. The Advent mid-weeks services this year will be based on "The Hymns of Advent" with a 6 PM meal and 7 PM service.
  - ii. Ministry growth – 28 children enrolled in Sunday school and 31 folks enrolled in adult Bible class. MOPS Ministry has grown needing to move into the Fellowship Hall to have enough space. Women's Community Bible study is growing as well.
  - iii. Pastor Greg is working with about 17 new member prospects
  - iv. Reminder about the goals for 2018

V. Committee Reports

- a. Property
  - i. Narthex update – the painting on the inside is complete
  - ii. The front doors to the church and the restrooms painting is not complete
  - iii. Wayne Benke placed locks on the electrical disconnect panels outside of the church building adjacent to the air conditioning units to prevent unauthorized access; for safety reasons primarily. The keys to the locks are available in the church office from the office secretary.

b. Ham Dinner

- i. An update was provided for the congregation at the worship service this morning. Judy added during the council meeting that the Ham Dinner was discontinued for a number of years but was started up again as means to give the congregation a common project to work together on and provide fellowship for the members.

c. Nominating Committee

- i. Chuck Hart
- ii. Dewayne Boyles

VI. Old Business

- a. Time and Talent Review – Judy has been doing this; there are many members that have given their time and used their talent in the past that have not completed and returned a form. We need to push to get as many folks to complete the form as possible; possibly a mention in the newsletter.
- b. Chris Filline – Safety procedures; Chris has been discussing with Glen Barrow, a retired SAPD officer, about putting together a review of the facilities and providing training for members. Possibly before Thanksgiving and then again after the first of the year.
- c. Eagle Scout Project – The Eagle Scout project has been completed.
- d. Kneeling Pads – Chuck Hart will follow-up with this project.
- e. Boy Scouts – Jacob has attended one of the recent troop committee meetings.
- f. Building Committee – we have received a number of volunteers to participate; Chuck Hart will plan the first meeting.
- g. Financial Audit – a plan is in progress. Marisela Boyles is working with Janet.

VII. New Business

- a. Annual Meeting – coming up in January; all committees and ministries need to submit a report for inclusion in the meeting packet.
- b. Insurance review – Jackie has received the policy coverage documentation for the year and asked that someone else review it as well. Chris Filline will also review the documentation.

VIII. Ushers

- a. November – Jackie Moss w/Chris Filline
- b. December – Scott Hunsicker w/Jackie Moss assisting
- c. January – Chris Filline w/Richard Crain

IX. Next Meeting

- a. November 11, 2018 (Veterans Day)
- b. Opening prayer – Chris Filline

X. Close with the Lord’s Prayer

- a. All joined in saying the Lord’s Prayer
- b. Meeting adjourned at 11:51 AM

Respectfully submitted,
Chuck Hart, Council Secretary

Treasurer Report for Zion Lutheran Church

Greetings,

For September Zion Lutheran Church has a net income of $93.59. For the month we had normal expenses. Please let me know any questions and I will answer them the best I can.

	August 2018	Year to Date
Total Income	$ 15,167.34	$ 136,134.53
Total Expenses	15,073.75	143,803.73
Net Income	$ 93.59	$ (7,669.20)

I am very proud to be a part of Zion and pray that God continues to use and bless Zion in His work.

Blessings,
Jackie Moss

From Pastor Greg’s Desk:

It is a tragic thing when gratitude seems obscure to the very people who have the most to be thankful for. To sinners forever saved by grace, thanksgiving should be significant. Even central. Healthy Christians are thankful Christians.

In fact, Romans 1:21 shows us that thanksgiving is what we were created for, and it is "at the heart of what it means to be a Christian."

Although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. (Romans 1:21)

There it is. Side by side with honoring God is giving him thanks. Don't underestimate the centrality of thanksgiving. Gratitude is essential in doing whatever we do to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31). This is no small thing.

So here we have this jarring angle: "The real difference between a Christian and a non-Christian is that the former give thanks to God." (How to Read the Psalms, 144).

In A Praying Life, Paul Miller adds some similar reflections about the centrality of thanksgiving for the Christian. While it was thanklessness that was the "first sin to emerge from our ancient rebellion against God" (Romans 1:21), in our ongoing redemption, it is thanksgiving that "replaces a bitter spirit with a generous one" (89-90). For a strong couple of pages on "Cultivating a Thankful Spirit," see Miller's Praying Life, 89-91.)

Taken from an article in "Church Leaders" by David Mathis)

With you on the way,
Pastor Greg

ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH 2018 HAM DINNER

Zion Lutheran Church was able to provide “ham dinner plates” to many, many people at our 2018 event—both dine-in and drive-thru. We want to give a HUGE “thank you” to EVERYONE who helped to make the event a success. A thank you, too, for the beautiful autumn day we were blessed with, despite several spurts of thunderstorms.

To those of you who were available to help, you know all the work involved, but the fellowship and comradery is so amazing. Work included setting up and taking down tables and chairs and canopies, selling tickets, cooking the 400+ pounds of ham, serving up the ham dinner plates, serving the tea, baking the cakes, cutting the cakes, peeling 300+ pounds of potatoes and making the potato salad, mixing the coleslaw, Rummage Sale, Silent Auction, and all the behind-the-scenes work. Thank you to those who donated items for the Silent Auction. Some items were anonymous donations, so we could not thank you personally. But our “thank you” goes out to you in this newsletter. Thank you for the many, many, many items donated for the Rummage Sale. Thank you to our on-site money counters who kept track of the monies as the day progressed. Thank you to Pastor Greg for providing a Saturday church service for the Sunday workers. Thank you to our on-site photographer (Eileen Merryman) who diligently roamed the grounds seeking opportunities to snap shots of “scrapbooking moments” to add to Zion Lutheran’s history books. Thank you for the band which Fred Pittman had contacted. In case we forgot to mention anyone, please know, EVERYONE was/is appreciated!

“Thank you” to Ms. Danae for setting up the awesome “Pig World” for the children to enjoy with so many activities she had planned for them. The kids were having s-o-o-o much fun!

Early morning started a little rough, with discovering bags of water, rather than bags of ice, in the ice trailer. The cooler had also gone out in the wee hours of the morning. With some quick thinking and phone calls, however, the event proceeded.

The list of raffle ticket winners, quilt winners, and ham give-away winners, was printed in an October church bulletin, but they are printed again in this Newsletter. This year we had eight (8) hams to give away, rather than four (4).

You are all truly a blessing to Zion Lutheran Church,

Ham Dinner Co-chairs
Bill Bippert and Cheri Boucher`

HAM DINNER T-SHIRTS

This year new t-shirts were ordered for the ham dinner, as the previous t-shirts (grey) had an outdated year on them.

We received a number of compliments on the new, bright blue shirts. If you are interested in buying a shirt for the 2019 Ham Dinner, please contact Rod Moss or Cheri Boucher` to let them know your size(s) and quantity.

What Does a Church Look Like?

Have you ever asked yourself the question, “What does a church look like?” It might seem like a silly question at first, but how we answer reveals a lot about our view of the church. For some the church looks like a building with a steeple or bell tower that is dedicated to the worship of God. For others the church looks like fully developed community organization with programs that meet specific needs. Still for others the church looks like a modern theater with a coffee shop, an awesome worship band, an excellent communicator on stage and great programs for their kids. What all these responses have in common is that they primarily are concerned with the form of a church.

But what if church wasn't defined by its form but rather its function? This is the fourth article in a five-part series on increasing effectiveness in developing disciples by making small shifts in our behavior, based on Daniel Im's book No Silver Bullets: Five Small Shifts That Will Transform Your Ministry.

The fourth shift Im highlights in his book is to move from form to function. Im reminds us to hold the forms of church loosely while clinging to the functions of church. Our pre-conceived ideas of what a church should look like (form) often surpass the more important question of what a church should do: the function of the church. The form (what church looks like) should always follow its function (what church does).

The author references the late missiologist Lesslie Newbigin who famously suggested that the church should be a sign, a foretaste, and an instrument of the Kingdom of God. A sign doesn't point to itself. Therefore, a healthy and effective church shouldn't be about attracting people to itself, but to Jesus and His Kingdom. Similarly, the church isn't the feast, but the foretaste. Healthy churches should help prepare people for the feast that is to come. And finally, Newbigin suggests the church should function as an instrument of the Kingdom of God here on earth as it is in heaven. Healthy churches should understand their function of being Christ's hands and feet and an instrument of God's blessing in the world.

So, what does this church look like? What should its form be? The truth is that different churches can take on various different forms so long as the form of church serves the function of being a sign, a foretaste, and an instrument of the Kingdom of God. The question we need to ask is how do we need to reform our congregation in order to execute the functions of a healthy, Christ-centered, mission-minded church?
